

Western Cooling Technologies

The Western Cooling Efficiency Center focuses on technologies that are well suited to dry western climates, particularly those that are overlooked in the current market. These include:

Evaporative Technologies

Radiant Technologies

Vapor Compression Technologies

Hybrid Technologies